

EXCERPT FROM MEMO

SUBJ: INTERVIEWS WITH GEN. VIKTOROVICH SERDACHENKO

18 DEC 1951

18 DEC 51

T. SERDACHENKO, Mikhail- "He is one of the most dangerous types".
SERDACHENKO, a friend of SERDACHENKO's who had a position in the German Foreign Office, once told SERDACHENKO during the war that SERDACHENKO had come to the Foreign Office and argued that the real enemy of the Germans was the Russian people and not the Soviet Government, which, of course, was in direct contrast to the philosophy of anti-communist emigres. SERDACHENKO later escaped to Switzerland with official German aid. SERDACHENKO has never met him personally, but everything he has heard about SERDACHENKO has been pretty bad. At best, he is a professional intelligence agent who will work for anyone for a price; at worst, he is a Soviet agent.
